Love Songs Details: see mhochman.com Michal Hochmans singing along with poetic vocabulary is sympathetic to lifes common problems and the people who live them. With a dreamy poetical freshness he moves easily through the lands of Dreams and Reality. While listening to his smooth and sensual interpretation of love songs, one can wonder why love is not everlasting and is sometimes coarse. Born in the Siberian city of Omsk, and raised in Lublin, the Polish town of musicians and poets, he instills in his songs the thoughtfulness of the Central European imagination. He has achieved an international fame in song festivals, song exchange competitions, has had a number of shows on Radio TV. Applause greeted his arrival and marked his departure. This is the response we give to a singer who has touched our hearts. One more time his songs are alive for past and present generations in Europe and America.
