Her angelic voice, combined with her characteristic lyricism and jazz-informed sensibilities, summon us to a higher state of being when we listen to these beautifully performed uplifting songs that cross a variety of genres. 8 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Jazz Vocals, POP: Folky Pop Details: Noameko is highly skilled vocalist who knows how to bring out the best in a song. She understands how to maximize the emotional impact of a musical selection by maintaining control over her voice and by resisting the temptation to "over-sing." Her interests include world music, particularly vocal techniques from diverse cultures. Her repertoire includes jazz, opera, blues, and gospel. Her jazz influences include Nancy Wilson, Lena Horne, Diane Reeves, and Ella Fitzgerald. She has had the privilege of performing in her home town with jazz greats Clark Terry, John Faddis, and Bill Waltrous. Paul Rigmaiden, the composer and guitarist on this outing, has been playing the guitar for most of his life. Wes Montgomery, McCoy Tyner, Thelonius Monk, Gilberto Gil, Jimi Hendrix, and a host of other great composers and musicians are his musical influences. When he is not composing, Paul teaches sixth grade at a local elementary school in California. He is working on a Ph.D. in education. If you want to Email Paul, his address is pqr1951@yahoo.com.
