The story starts when Fay Roberts traveled to Cuba to study flute with THE RICHARD EGUES, of Orquesta Aragon fame. Richard, an innovative virtuoso of the Cuban flute style is also the composer of Cubas most popular cha cha chas, El Bodeguero. Richard sent Fay home with enough music and inspiration to start a new Cuban Charanga Orchestra. Though consistent correspondence, Richard guided the creation of L.A.s most authentic Cuban dance group, ORQUESTA CHARANGOA. Since 1997 CHARANGOA has performed in L.A.s top venues, including the Dorothy Chandler Pavilion, The Palladium, The Palace, and the Conga Room. CHARANGOA has opened for Cubas most famous band LOS VAN VAN and has backed up Isreal Lopez Cachao. Television appearances include KTTVs Good Day L.A., and KCETs Holiday Celebration. CHARANGOA performs in many festivals every year including the Watts Towers Jazz Festival, L.A. Cuban Festival, Long Beach Cuban Festival, Oxnard Salsa Festival, L.A. Salsa Festival, Alhambra Jubilee, Dance Downtown at the Music Center, One Colorados concert series, and U.C.L.A.s Festival Latino. Fay Roberts is a Yamaha Artist.
