Shacream: The Chick Blowing That Fire 12 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Hip Hop, HIP HOP/RAP: Rap
Details: Shes spitting fire and coming with hotness. Who is this dragon? This new vibe has been rapping since 12. Now in her 20's, and working on her freshman album entitled "The Most Hated". Shacream is ready to add flavor to the hip-hop game and ready to shine with the best. Shacream is not only a woman with the skills to rap, she also writes her own lyrics, and sings at times. Such passion for the industry came from artists like Tupac, Notorious B.I.G., Jay Z, Outkast, Eve, Nas, Missy Elliot, Foxy Brown, Lauryn Hill, and all time favorite Mary J Blidge, Like many artist she writes from real life experience which initiate an emotional hip hop touch that display her true talent. This flavorful style from Ms. Shacream always keeps the heads bobbing and the party crunk. You may ask where does such a stylish female rapper come from? Where does she represent? Shacream is an original rapper from the Midwest that was born and raised in Milwaukee, WI known as Mil-Town. She possesses the talent and skills to produce banging hot joints. Shacream entitled her first CD Single "Who That Girl" with a hot new club song called "At The Club" feat. Mr. Frank Nitty (CEO of Empty Shell Entertainment). When Shacream writes a song she keeps her ladies and gents in mind. She gives them music that people can feel. Her rhyme and rhythm is straight from the streets. It is a righteous reflection of her true-life stories. This empowering her attitude to be determined to be the soulful female rapper she is. Hearing the attitude on her completed freshman album "The Most Hated", there are twelve cuts. This will be in stores by the spring of 2004. Shacream has taken her life and rolled it up in a song "Roll With Me" Need proof? Check this sample:
When Shacream speak guarantee you gone listen I knock ya block off got thugs when drama pop off/
Words be so powerful I knock ya block off/ Shacream so lyrical im all dazed off you know me From the times when I was in high school/ Sporty tomboy chick stepping out in some used Bike racing chick winning trophies and tough nias owing me/ Trans am rider fingers full of ice and goldies Im one of the illest chicks/ That Mil-town chick we gone show these weak nias how Milwaukee can flip Straight up!

The youngest of nine children, whose earliest role models are her strong willed and independent parents, Shacream not only survived but thrived on taking her love for the Old School rap, R&B, Reggae and turning it into a personal poetry that speaks straight from the heart. Over the years, she proceeded in a fast and furious pace with her writing skills. In which she is taking her message everywhere. Entering a string of talent contest using her original raps she received an award while in high school in the NAACP-ACT-SO music show. She then knew she was becoming a star, not only on the streets of Milwaukee, but knew that fame was waiting for her around the corner. "I always believed in myself," she explains. "I know that I have something real to write about and when its real people cant help but listen."
