Smooth contemporary base guitar that expresses deep-seated emotions and portrays a story of the ups and downs in life. 15 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Smooth Jazz, URBAN/R&B: Contemporary urban Details: Theo's "Heavenly Inspirations" express his deep-seated emotions through a smooth contemporary bass guitar solo. It portrays an emotional story of the ups and downs in life. With each new level attained in life there are new lessons to be learned - "new level new devil." Theo started playing and composing jazz and orchestra compositions while attending high school. He learned to play his brother's bass guitar (self taught) in 3 months in order to get in the jazz band. With a serious dedication to practice, Theo's skills on the bass guitar greatly evolved and soon became unmatched in the local St. Louis area. Fellow musicians and peers began to know him as unreal on the bass guitar. After mastering the bass guitar, Theo began to master other instruments including the electric and acoustic guitar, drums, keyboards, and various other percussion instruments. His talents landed him a scholarship at the very prestige Berklee School of Music in Boston MA. Berklee polished his playing and composing ability to the ultimate level and gave him a much deeper knowledge of music. He also gained massive amounts of experience playing in a variety of bands, studios, and churches in the Boston and now St Louis areas. Theo is very serene with his playing/composing and his fingers do all the talking through his instruments. The direction of his newest composition, "Heavenly Inspirations" express his deep-rooted emotions, and this new smooth contemporary sound will greatly move people emotionally.
