Synopsis: If you love children, watching them play and hearing their yells and screams that go with their chase can take you back to your own childhood. In his newest anthology, Peter Knoester writes poems that will take his readers back to those days of carefree play. --- "Children love to learn about things at an early age and my book is just the thing for them to learn in a easy way what animals do and what things are important and what is fun to know and read about. In the process the young ones will learn the English language for their betterment of schooling still to come," he says. --- About the Author: Peter Knoester was born in The Netherlands, in the city of The Hague. He now resides in Hamilton, Ontario, Canada, and is working on two other books of poetry and stories.
