And Have Them Continue To Build Your Content Base For FREE! Assemble Your Own Writing Team For Free - And Never Worry About How To Grow Your Site With Fresh Content Daily Ever Again! How much time have you spent in the last year trying to come up with fresh new content for your sites or blogs? We all know, or at least SHOULD know, how important it is to keep bringing fresh content to our sites as frequently as possible - it builds readership, establishes authority, brands you, builds regular ongoing traffic and keeps the search engines happily working away spidering your sites regularly as the number of pages indexed grows and your sites move up the search engine ranking pages, right? So then why is it so hard some days to come up with new content, fresh ideas and new blog posts? Face it - weve all been there, staring at the blank screen trying to get inspired. Sometimes it works, and sometimes it doesnt. But haphazard, hit and miss just doesnt cut it online these days, does it? Even with all my online marketing and blogging experience, I faced the same dilemma, spent the same amount of time staring at a blank screen - and probably even more time since I do this for a living full-time. But then it all changed after I started to see the light: Until very recently it took deep pockets to run an article directory of any size... The authors signup ages, profile pages, linking the articles to the author pages and the category pages, the search functions, the category and subcategory indexing and linking - all took some heavy duty, expensive programming - costs that are all upfront. But now, thanks to the CMS (content management systems) built into WordPress, you can set up your own article directory as easily as setting up a blog - provided, of course, you know which themes to use, which plugins to use and what tweaks to use on the settings.
