ABOUT THE AUTHOR Annaya is a native Floridian currently residing in South Florida. She attended Florida A M University in Tallahassee, Florida where she received both BS and MBA degrees. She is a CPA and operated a private preschool near her hometown for five years. Annaya began writing poetry and short stories as a child. She became a member of Toastmasters International and after winning several Best Speaker Awards, decided it was time to take her speaking career to the next level. As a motivational speaker, Annaya has touched many lives with her words of encouragement which always have an underlying message: believe and achieve the IMPOSSIBLE! Annaya's debut novel, Never Too Much, A Journey of Love, is an inspirational fictional work of art designed to motivate and encourage people of all walks of life, especially women, who face seemingly unconquerable obstacles. Her lead character, Veronica Gray, faces real world issues in her life from infidelity to death and deals with them differently. This story offers an entertaining mix of fiery love scenes with romantic encounters, unimaginable betrayal, suspenseful mental seduction, murder and inspirational interludes. This best selling novel will undoubtedly touch your life in more ways than one, but most profoundly in a positive way. Adding the perfect crescendo to her already successful projects, Annaya has created yet another masterpiece. Her spoken word has astounded the literary community as she ignites the flame of self-motivation. Annaya captures the essence of internal power in her spoken word CD, Its All About The Game. Are You Prepared For the Game of LIFE? Her unique down to earth style has attracted thousands of new listeners to spoken word by giving them meaningful prose without complicated lingo, keeping them on the edge of their seats and wanting more. Her newly released CD, Love ME Unconditionally is sure to make you fall in love all over again. Browse this website for excerpts from the CD. Also see Annaya on YouTube and search for "Annaya The Poet". Join her blog pages and also see her on MySpace.com/AnnayaThePoet. Annaya hosts seminars and workshops on a variety of topics but specifically, she deals with how relationships (friends, family, religious, and love) affect your life and decisions. Middle school and high school students and women especially love her poetic performances and how she relates real life experiences to encourage, motivate and give hope. Annaya has touched the lives of millions as she continues to give her heart and soul in a way that no one has! Her talent is unmatched and her passion, sincerity and love for mankind, unsurpassed. Enjoy the journey as she give you hope for a better tomorrow! She is currently working on her next book scheduled to be published Summer 2008.
