Produced by Award Winning Multi-Platinum Songwriter "Clay Cook" (co-wrote "Room for Squares" by John Mayer Clay Cook) 5 MP3 Songs ROCK: Modern Rock, ROCK: Acoustic Details: All proceeds from the sale of Cape's record go the American Red Cross to support Hurricane Katrina Victims! In 2004 Cape went into the studio to record his first record "Pour Me Down on You". It was produced by Award Winning Multi-Platinum Songwriter Clay Cook (co-wrote "Room for Squares" by John Mayer Clay Cook). The EP includes five songs and features the first single "She's all mine". "Working with Clay has been the highlight of my journey thus far". All the tracks on the record were written by Cape songwriter Nathan Bullman. Cape has been writing with Nathan since the beginning "We have totally different taste in music, but somehow we are able to find a nice blend". The record was finished up in late August after being mastered by Alex Lowe at Red Tuxedo Studios in Atlanta. "I was raised on MTV mainstream music, this record is a combination of everything I have ever listened to".
