Denny had heard by word of mouth about a talented performer from Tacoma, Washington known as: [C.A.U.T.I.O.N]. Denny was impressed when he first saw [C.A.U.T.I.O.N.] tell his story through slam poetry. "He's very unusual for a rapper," said Todd Denny, founder of the Men's Violence Prevention program. "He sings and raps about songs that make a difference, songs that have a consciousness to them, that have a political flavor. Not the typical money and 'hoe's and cars." "He literally is one of the best in the world," Denny said. For more information on Terrance Turner's recording studio, Caution Studios, go to cautionstudios.com.
