IF YOU WOULD RATHER PURCHASE THIS CD IN PERSON FROM YOUR LOCAL MUSIC RETAILER IT CAN NOW BE ORDERED IN The instrumental music of jazz guitar legend John Scofield has been given an inspired lyrical treatment on a new album, The Cat Within, recorded by Australian vocalist /musician /composer Daryl Aberhart. This landmark recording is the first time the Scofields have given their blessing to such a project, and after listening to the first song, title track 'The cat within ', it's easy to hear why; this album is a pure and positive affirmation. Scofields original melodies and harmonies are shown total respect throughout The cat within, and Aberharts savvy lyrical treatment and arrangements give this album a broad based accessibility that allows the music to function on wide variety of levels. Track selections have been taken from albums including 'Time on my hands', 'GrooveElation', 'Hand Jive' and 'Bump', giving a tasty overview of Scofield's recorded work during the period from 1990-1999. There is a real variety of flavours on 'The Cat Within', from the sly 7/4 funk of The Office , the raucous fusion chops of Put a sock in it', to the reflective and bittersweet ballad Remember me . Cocktail soul numbers like Gonna find my way and Face the facts combine with the jungle groove of Blonde and blue , the slinky Loosen up, and the down home Beat the burro to keep even the most hip dance floor happy. The relaxed joy of the ensemble playing on 'The cat within' disguises some serious capability on behalf of the musicians. Daryl's intonation, phrasing and tone impart even more life into already breath taking melodies, which are sent uptown via sharp backing vocal arrangements, beautifully realised by well respected Sydney based vocalist Lily Dior. Jazz purists and Scofield fans are well accommodated as featured instrumentalists Gary Daley (organ), Dave Longo (guitar), and Richard Maegraith (saxophone) stroll up Scofield's spiky harmonic ladders with ease and style. The rhythm section of drummer Nic Cecire and bassist Brett Hirst sew deep pockets laying down sassy grooves, whilst maintaining the fresh taste and integrity of the original tracks. The Cat Within is truly an ensemble effort, with the jazz muscle more sinew than bulk, obtained more by chopping wood than clocking overtime at the gym. The focus becomes the vocalisation of the feeling translated by Scofield's music as a whole and it feels great. The Cat Within was recorded by Michael Henshaw at Paradise Studios, and mastered by Steve Smart at studio 301. Drop in and say Hi @ myspace.com/darylalberhart
