I consider it a blessing each time I have the opportunity to share my artistry. My beginnings are quite humble. I was born in Ferriday Louisiana 34 years ago. My parents moved to Illinois where I grew up. I still reside in Illinois and when I'm not busy working, I enjoy being with my family developing the next generation of musical talent. Being blessed with special musical abilities and a desire to sing made me a favorite in church, at family reunions, and at school functions. From my earliest memories I always wanted to be a performer. As a young adult I began the long road of touring, recording, and working my way into the industry. I've been singing professionally for 17 years. Being able to sing throughout the country has reinforced my real passion....connecting with the audience. I learned my craft by ear, which has been a tremendous asset. However, as an adult I pursued the academic side of music to balance my knowledge. But I couldn't leave well enough alone.....about four years ago I decided to see what I could do with a guitar. Turns out I enjoy playing as much as I do singing. Currently, I do most of my recording in my studio. The most recent CD is a Christmas compilation of originals, as well as several classics. The CD demonstrates versatility and style...jazz is the foundation and my true love. There is feeling in what I write and how I perform. It truly comes from my heart. I hope you enjoy the music. Please keep an eye out for the next CD due to be released in 2003.
