Details: Diver is: Andrew Lenox - Guitar Gary Behling - More Guitar Jared Mooney - Vocals Aaron Olmstead - Bass Ryan Shaw - Drums Diver is a five piece progressive/art/metal/rock band from the infamous Flint MI whose sound is a genre swallowing, mind altering, and welcomed derivation of the norm. Birthed from the eclectic minds of 5 radically different musicians, Diver's subject matter and sound never strays from the abnormal. From classically inspired songs about knife salesmen, to upbeat rock tunes about the reptilian nature of the affluent, to Mancini-esqe epics about the end of the establishment, Diver is never in one place too long. Yet somehow through the cacophony their sound remains consistent. Diver formed in 2002 from a collective of best friends and has been the sole focus of the groups lives for the past 3 years.
