A straight a-head jazz album recorded live in the "old fashion club style setting" with musicians milled together in the studio doing what they were born to do "create magic". 15 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Jazz Vocals, JAZZ: Traditional Jazz Combo Details: Entertainment is no stranger to this vocalist. Shes been wowing audiences since the ripe ole age of 9 when she first toured with her parents throughout their home State of Connecticut, performing not only for returning vets at area hospitals, but also wherever an audience gathered in their name. Her resolve, persistence and tenacity have gotten her through many road blocks during her career. I certainly cant go back to capture what Ive lost in my youth, she proclaims. Im doing my best to create an awesome ending. Every rough road can lead to the heights of greatness, if you keep moving forward. And through the ever-changing decades of the industry, Jan Eisen has done just that. Despite lifes ups and downs, she has pressed onward working every venue, pushing the limit and never changing that smooth-sophisticated style shes known for. Jan has had the extreme pleasure of performing for Cy Coleman and shared the stage with such greats as Carol Channing, Maureen McGovern and Bonnie Raitt. She has also performed numerous jazz fests, galas and other special events on both the east and west coasts. Her timeless energy and sultry style has captivated enthusiasts both young and old throughout her singing career, offering the ultimate romantic encounter that leaves her listeners walking away and not forgetting how she has made them feel. Jan loves to sing and record like the old greats use to in that old fashion club style setting with your most favorite musicians milled together around you doing what they were all born to do create magic for the mere pleasure of it. Jans distinct style has impressed west coast jazz lovers since 1995 where she has performed for John Wayne Cancer Research, the Jerry Lewis MDA National Telethon, Catalina Jazz Series, The Queen Mary Golden State Pop Orchestra and has the honor of being accompanied by many of the industrys most famous musicians including Emmy nominated pianist to Sarah Vaughn, George Gaffney, reknown bandleader, Joe Massimino, and world-leading drummer/percussionist/movie sound track artist, Alex Acua to name a few.
