

Mp3 Ric Troll And Bob Hartig - Eyes On Mars

DOWNLOAD HERE

Percussion and saxophone improvisations in a wide variety of settings ranging from ambient tone poems to intense freebop 12 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Free Jazz, NEW AGE: Ambient Details: Ric Troll - Active as a composer and performer, Ric has led his own bands and been a member of the fusion bands Juniper Bear and Tamboo. He's also performed with John Shea, Richard Sinclair, Eddie Russ, Kurt Ellenberger, Danny Heines, Ralston Bowles, David Molinari, and the Troll, DeVos, Boughner Band. Ric is currently a member of The Rhythm Comedians As a composer Ric's credits include numerous new music compositions, as well as the theme for the public radio program The Screening Room and the theme and incidental music for the American Public Radio presentation of Pulp Radio, a series of radio dramas that included the Nick Danger [made famous by The Firesign Theater] episode Down Under Danger. Bob Hartig - Bob is one of the leading saxophonists on Michigan's jazz scene, but his tastes and influences are eclectic and he continually seeks to add new colors to his musical palette. A West Michigan native, he has played in formats as diverse as classic jazz combos, black gospel choirs, blues bands, big bands, church worship teams, and experimental rock projects. Always busy as a freelance player, Bob is also a member of The Rhythm Comedians.

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals: