Personal History STEVAN B comes from a small town in Southern Illinois. His music and personal roots run deep in the solid Midwestern values of family, humor, determination and open honesty that permeate the rural landscape. STEVAN B has been singing and playing guitar since grade school. Different times in his life has found him playing rock and country music with various bands. Recently he has re-discovered the joys of an acoustic guitar and folk, blues, and "Americana" music that had shaped his life from the beginning. He's been playing it that way in BORDERS stores, coffeehouses, Folk Festivals, conventions, and Disaster Relief Benefit Concerts ever since. About the songs on the CD: 1- Be With You: Two lovers from the same background but with different values. 2- Vanity: There is a bit of this in us all. 3- One Note: A song about a mystical weaver of songs keeping the world safe at night. 4- Here's to the Boys: This song is for the ever lovin' front line soldier who just wants to live through another day and make it home. 5- Come Home: This is about what happens to high school sweethearts AFTER they get married. 6- Plug in the Jug: Gotta walk the walk, to talk the talk. 7- Sunnyside Up: A happy little song. 8- Unsung Hero's: A song about the "average Joe's" that make up everyday life. 9- Book of Love: We are loved more than we will ever know. 10- Goodnight: My way of saying "thanks" for listening.
