Details: After years of honky tonks, beer, parties, more beer and occasionally opening for an artist who has made it, we decided to combine our efforts as songwriters and musicians to create and share our lifes experiences through our music. This album is a collection of songs we have written throughout 2008. Inspired by our travels, old friends, new friends and our incredible families, each song contains a little piece of each of us. We hope that our songs take you to where we have been and allow you to forget about your stresses for a while...
