Details: The "new" Relentless Division is a 3-man hip-hop group, from Indianapolis ("Wes Ndy's"), Indiana. Damion "Denote" Alexander is the C.E.O. of both; Seal Of Approval Records and More Clientele Productions. As an (C.E.O./Producer/Artist), he has produced and recorded music for the past 7 years, and managed to graduate from Indiana State University with a Bachelors Degree in Electronics Computer Technology. Richard "Rich C" Cannon (Artist) has also recorded music for the past 7 years, and is one of the founding members of the group. Larry "Lay" Reeves (Public Relations/Producer/Artist) has been producing and recording for the past 3 years, although he is not new to this. All members assist with the daily activities and normal operation and are in their mid-20's. The first project was the solo album titled "Relentless", by D-Note, which dropped in early 1999. It created a buzz for the whole label. Followed up by a group project in late 2001, The Relentless Division's "Still Relentless" lives up to the promise to keep the fire burning for Seal of Approval Records. The third project, "The Clientele Theory" is available now, and is the best to date. The first two projects have sold over 10,000 copies on the streets, the internet and in local music stores without national distribution or major radio airplay. The Relentless Division have worked with producers and artists such as: Tone Capone: (producer) "Mary Jane", "Smile" {Scarface f/ 2Pac}, Mike Marshall: (singer) "I got Five on it" {Luniz}, "On the Grind" {The Click}, and "Rumors" {Club Nuvo}, Anthony Bush (singer) {Dos of Soul} Def Jam Records, Lisa Taylor (background singer): {Rose Royce} "Car Wash" {Janet Jackson}. The R.D. has also opened up for acts such as: Eightball MJG, Lil' Flip, Twista and AJ Free from 106 Park. The Relentless Division has chalked up many hours of hard work and finances to showcase their talents. All projects have received great reviews.

Promotions consist of internet promotions, posters flyers, live performances, word of mouth and heavy rotation in various mix tapes and CD's. Relentless Pt.1, the album, was featured in the October '99 Murder Dog magazine issue with the Cash Money Millionaires on the front cover as one of the best of the best independents. Still Relentless: "The Rebuttal" is featured in the December '02 Murder Dog magazine issue with Nas on the front cover. Also, there's a review in the Indianapolis based paper, "The Scoop" on the "Still Relentless" project. Everybody knows that the Midwest is the next to blow up, and The Relentless Division plans to put Indiana on the map when it does. For more info, contact DENOTE @ Seal Of Approval Records/ P.O.
