A Slovenian folk ethnic tribute cross-pollinated and offered with new, classic-style American-British pop. 16 MP3 Songs WORLD: Eastern European, POP: Folkly Pop Details: A tribute album to the richness, joy, depth, vitality, color and warmth of Slovenian music and culture. Modern day echoes of Ansambels Slak, and Avsenik; with gratitude to Corinne Leskovar, P. Vendelin Spendov, John Arko, mojem družinam Gombac and the Slovenian-American family-at-large in Chicago. A great community, hard working, conscientious, diligent; simple, humble, reverent and giving. Folks who know also how to celebrate--wine, food, dancing, singing and laughter. Persistence, perservering, honoring life through a quiet faith, through admirable dreams and accomplishments. This CD attempts to take a paragraph or two from the pages of this heritage, a living treasure book. That spirit and sensibility transplanted into the setting of "life in America," and cross-pollinated with some original contemporary music. More dancing, singing, listening, smiling. "Slovengelescina!"
