Industrial Rock, Rap, Soundtrack, Electronica and instrumental. 13 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Pop Crossover, ELECTRONIC: Industrial Details: Here is a compilation that will wake you up! Former Alesis employees collaborate on the subject of Dark Existence and deliver an upbeat slant on the subject of Dark existence. Let's face it; we are not always happy and shiny people. Enjoy this radical ride through the minds of passionate and hungry artists. This CD features a collection of Instrumental Rock, White-boy Rap, Electronica, Soundtrack and Hard Rock. Artists featured on Dark Existence include Pete Celi, Dallas "Keith" Lykens, Masher, Robert Morin, Xsteph, Sean Malroy, John Sarappo, Danny O'Donnell, Seaton and Axeslinger, Joe Reyes and Darklight. The songs are original and were completed during the latter days of the Alesis Adat digital recorder, 1999. The artists are engineers, service reps, managers and technicians who worked at the Alesis Corporation. All selections were recorded on Adat tape by the artists and mixed to Masterlink. "Those were the days my friends, we thought they'd never end" This CD was produced by Danny O'Donnell, mixed and recorded by each artist. These original songs are the property of the artists. Gabriel Torres completed artwork and Mike Axeslingers cousin did original photo composites. Anyways this will put some lead in your pencil, take a listen! Copyright c and p Odd productions 2000
