

Molokai Rolling Boulder Beach, Sounds For Relaxation Mp3

DOWNLOAD HERE

Molokai Rolling Boulder Beach An island preserved in time, the rural and peaceful Molokai is not the "typical" Hawaii, and this is not your typical beach sound recording. This particular stretch of boulder beach is made of rocks that are just the right size, such that when a large wave hits the shore, the rocks can be heard clicking against each other as they roll back into the ocean. A backdrop of white noise punctuated by crashing waves makes this recording great for relaxation, meditation, or sleep.

Approximately half an hour long. Please visit moodstreamsfor more soundtracks and samples. Tags: sea
