This Adult Contemporary artist has been Writing, Producing and Performing her inspiring catalog of songs to audiences across the United States, On Stage, In Film, Television, Radio and Overseas. Heaven knows no boundaries for a true romantic like Connie. Her thought provoking lyrics and haunting melodies can inspire even the toughest of cynics. A culmination of four years of work with Grammy winning engineer John Blanche, the magic continues with "I Wish You Well." The music inspired the award winning "Ocean Bird" video (produced by Arte Tedesco, Monkey Fist Productions Videography by Jon Rohrer, WEBTV) which recently made it's New York City debut at "Arlene's Grocery 3rd Annual Film Fest" in the Village. Not being a pampered girl, Connie works hard in many facets of the entertainment world. She has earned membership in the Actor's Equity Association and performs in theaters and on the big screen. Credits include "Break the Spell of Silence," "Wiccian's Lair," "Head Trip" (featuring songs on the soundtracks) and "From The Earth To The Moon" on HBO(directed by Sally Field.) Blackwood hopes to get more principle film roles, but her first passion is her music. Most recently she was heard on "One Life To Live" singing soon to be released, "Every Time It Rains." It's really a love song to Scotland! Connie takes you to Lush Tropical Dreamlands, Across Oceans into Uncharted Waters...Sung from the heart, these melodies will stay with you for some time to come....Let the Journey Begin...
