Born in Nicaragua, Central America in July 12, 1973, Franck Junior Flores lived in a civil war as a survivor. At the age of nine, he taught himself flute recorder and learnt some violin in a class. In 1986 a blind person taught him 8 guitar chords. Three years later, in 1989 Franck is nominated in Nicaragua to represent the country in OTI International, the musical festival where the best song of every country competed. A sixteen years old boy was chosen among 1000 competitors nationwide with an original song. In 1990 he came to United States of America and had a personal experience with his Lord and Savior Jesus, dedicating his life to Him since then, and baptized in March 23, 1991. He lives in Manhattan, New York and His music is around the world in more than 30 countries on many radio stations and programs like The Voice of Hope.

The Album is the result of many years of missionary work, endless recording sessions and a he	eart full of God's love and grace. Thanks for your Patronage!
