Whilst keeping the overall sound consistent and commercial, James takes his audience on a journey, fusing together folk-rock, pop, blues, funk, jazz and country with occasional R&B, hip-hop/soul, Latin and African-flavoured rhythms. His lyrics similarly address a wide range of themes. James has performed widely in the UK, the United States and South Africa. James's recent partnership with veteran session drummer and producer Brian McCook has led to a perfect harmony of musical aspiration. Complementing each other from different musical backgrounds and perspectives, they have created a timeless and yet contemporary sound. Brian (aka "Cookie") has recorded and toured with a range of international artists, both in Europe and the US. While James Keen has his own distinct sound, it is in the same vein as a number of leading contemporary, creative artists such as Ben Harper, Jason Mraz, Ryan Adams, John Mayer and Dave Matthews. More classic influences would include Paul Simon, Bob Dylan, Neil Young, James Taylor and Sting. His exciting new album No Coincidence, featuring 12 songs written by James and produced by Brian, was released in November 2007; selected tracks can be found under music and pictures from the recording sessions can be found in the gallery.
