"A superb mix of folk-rock and folk-pop" is how Jim Liddane, Chairman of International Songwriters Association, describes my music 10 MP3 Songs FOLK: Folk Pop, ROCK: Folk Rock Details: Born in 1951, West Midlands UK, I picked up my first guitar at the age of twelve, four years later in 1967 I was playing in my first group, The Approach, with Ozzy Osbourne and three others. The Approach lasted a few weeks and I went on to play lead guitar in other groups, after doing that for a few years I started to wonder if I could write a song. My first song came to me in the early eighties and I called it, The Seven Wonders. After writing for some years I decided to get some of my songs professionally demoed and in 1997 I joined the International Songwriters Association and used two Artists, CATHY THE INNOCENCE and TOM, RICK LARRY who record through ISA to sing my songs for me. The first song is dedicated to my Mother, the second song is dedicated to my Father, there is a ballad about John Lennon and The Beatles, a song about childhood romance and more. Need more info?
