JAZZ: Jazz Vocals, EASY LISTENING: Crooners/Vocals Details: Ron Kaplan's musical style is reminiscent of the great jazz and popular singers of the 1950's. Critics note his phrasing, tone, diction and ability to get to the heart of a song with his own mark of musicianship. "A mature vocalist and leader"...Jazz Improv. "Kaplan phrases with sophisticated ease at any tempo"...JazzTimes. "...Ron has superb command of a warm and flexible baritone that literally cocoons the listener within the cozy atmosphere of images it creates"...Jazz Quad. "Jazz singers come and go; few have staying power.
Kaplan is one you can be sure will be around for some time. First he's a true jazz singer who knows his way around a tune, swinging in the irreverent manner that made singers like Mark Murphy, Jackie Paris and Mel Torme stars. Kaplan's a musician first and foremost using his voice as an integral part of the jazz mode"...Rapport. "Destined to become one of the greats in the field. Ron Kaplan is the genuine article"...D.David Dreis.
