

Mp3 The Flood - Rock: Progressive Rock

DOWNLOAD HERE

Refreshing song based pop rock with great lyrics, vocals, and rythms. If Bruce Hornsby or March Cohn wrote songs for Sting to sing. 5 MP3 Songs ROCK: Progressive Rock, POP: Folkly Pop Details: The Flood was a refreshingly original five-piece pop rock band from North Carolina. Fronted by lead singer and chief songwriter, Bill West, the band formed in the late Fall of 2001 to record a few of Bill's songs and instead - produced one of the top twenty best albums of 2002 as voted and rated by Triad Style Magazine based in Greensboro NC. The band entered the studio after only two weeks together with producer and engineer Thomas Johnson whose credits include Jane's Addiction, Rancid, Porno for Pyros, The Wallflowers, and many more. The Flood took great pride in the art of song crafting. If you enjoy the sounds of Sting, The Samples, Bruce Hornsby, Seal, Coldplay, and U2- then you will understand and enjoy The Flood. This self-titled self released debut featured 5 brilliant songs. It is currently no longer in stock but the songs can be purchased through i-tunes as well as many other digital download services offered through CD Baby. You can also visit billwest.tv to purchase not only these songs but many more from Bill West. Check out "Rearrange Me" and the beautiful "Borrow My Eyes". Clicking on "The Flood" web site link to the left will take you straight to Bill West's new page.  N O T I C E !!!

 All of these songs are now available for digital download through I-tunes as well as CD Baby's version of I-tunes which is called MP3Tunes.com. Just go to either site and type "The Flood" in the search box. Thanks!

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals: