Pop Rock, David Gray The Fray 11 MP3 Songs POP: Today's Top 40, ROCK: Modern Rock Details: Your Life Asleep is Stephen McWhirter an artist taking an approach at song writing that is inspired by his story of ruin and redemption, the son of a traveling evangelical minister, Stephen grew up around hymnal music in countless parts of the country. In his teens he turned from the beliefs of his parents, sinking deep into a ten-year stretch of drugs alcohol. At age 22 he gave his life to Christ, having been a songwriter musician from the age of 15, he realized he had been given the chance to reach people with the question is there more to life then all of this Today, Stephen finds himself maturing in his faith and song writing ready to take whatever the next step might be. Producer engineer Peter Searcy helped to guide Stephens songs giving the album a true feeling of honesty, with up beat pop tunes like I Will Never Forget to a full out rock song What If Its Real and bringing it all around with beautiful ballads like Not Alone Stephen McWhirter has found his way in the self titled album Your Life Asleep.
