"Red Sky in the Morning" by Bill Hamann is a tale of loves lost and found amid sailing and treachery on the inland seas that will grab even the most casual reader. Sailors will enjoy the detail and nuances of handling the fictitious Irwin 37 ketch Seaquestor, while manipulating Lake Erie's swiftly changing moods. Stories intertwine and surprise while taking the reader from Vermilion to Lorain's Black River and across the Lake to the Long Point Light. A perfect read for a windy November!
