Windsweeping is driving a high performance vehicle with no particular destination in mind and absolutely no time constraint beckoning a return. It is accompanied with a rather eclectic selection of music playing in the background as the experience evolves into the arena in which ideas are born, decisions are made and life is allowed to be filtered through an ambiance of solitude. Following the death of his mentor, David Jarvis goes Windsweeping in an effort to put his life back into perspective. Only this Windsweeping excursion isn't like anything he has ever experienced. Ultimately, he understands that men do not inherently know how to love and he welcomes an invitation to be taught all the dimensions of love by a woman whose gifts transcend time and space. Learning how to love others alters every aspect of David's life and eventually leads him to recognize the woman of his dreams. Windsweeping is a love story every woman will readily embrace, but it is written from a man's perspective allowing all men everywhere to finally comprehend what the women in their lives have been trying to instill in them long before they were even born.
