"One Step Closer" Billy Johnson's artistic light and personality are so bright it could illuminate a very dark room. A musical prodigy who emerged at the tender age of seven, Billy is taking R B listeners to another level at the age of twenty-one. Born and raised in Detroit, Michigan - the overpowering star in the making, Billy Johnson, credits a number of influences including his ultra-supportive mother, who he used to listen to sing all the time. Billy also sites his aunt Helen Moore, a choir director. While he was performing in her choir, she gave him invaluable instruction on his voice. There, in the spirit of geniuses like: Boyz II Men, Michael Jackson, Luther Vandross and so many others, Billy found an interest in writing his own material during his high school years. He continued the process of writing and soon after recorded his debut release "One Step Closer." Billy graduated high school at the age of 17, even though he struggled to graduate on time with his fellow classmates. Before he started recording, Billy was very quiet and shy and wouldn't stand up for himself. He wasn't sure how his peers would react to his gift, so he hid it for many years. But once he started on his musical journey, those shy qualities soon flourished and unleashed an ingenious musical mastermind... giving him the confidence he needed to fulfill his dreams. One Step Closer has been and continues to be a wild ride, but Billy is always ready and willing to take on any obstacles or opportunities that may arise. He invites his listeners to delve deeper and take a closer look into the other side of him. It is unlike anything that anyone has ever heard from him before. His debut album entitled "One Step Closer" can be purchased right here at CDBabyor by emailing your request to mtjrecordsllc@comcast.net. _____
