Timeless renditions of jazz solo piano masterpieces inspired by Ellington (Caravan, Perdido), Monk (Ask Me Now), McKenna (Dream A Little Dream), Tatum / Waller (Ain't Misbehavin'), Fitzgerald (How High The Moon) Jarrett (You Don't Know What Love Is) 10 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Traditional Jazz Combo, JAZZ: Bebop Details: It's Reigning Kats Dogs Bogen features critically acclaimed jazz solo pianist Eyran Katsenelenbogen's interpretations of well known Jazz Classics. It showcases his influences and inspiration by key jazz figures: Ellington (Caravan and Perdido), Monk (Ask Me Now), McKenna (Dream A Little Dream), Tatum and Waller (Ain't Misbehavin'), Fitzgerald (How High The Moon) and Jarrett (You Don't Know What Love Is). The CD is encompassing Swing, Stride and Bebop styles, while retaining a highly original sound. It serves as an important landmark in Eyran's exhilarating musical journey, beginning with tonal improvisation (Jazzonettes, 1989), and continuing with explorations of popular songs (One Time, 1992) and a recent excursion into the realms of free improvisation (Formation, 2000). Recorded at the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation's (CBC) Glenn Gould Studio, Toronto. Eyran is playing a 1968 New York Steinway 9-foot Model D concert grand piano.
