Performing all original music, the bands' styles range from rock to jazz, lullabies to swing. Babies just love our lullaby music! The members of Little Melodies Band are very excited about the opportunity to bring music to kids, and hope the experience will be a blast for ALL! WANT TO MEET THE BAND?? READ ON! Anthony Michaud, founder and lead singer/guitarist for Little Melodies Band, is currently a music teacher in the Kennebunk, Maine school system. He has taught there since 1996. Anthony's goal for children graduating 3rd grade is for all students to be able to read music and play at least one instrument. He is also the writer for all the Little Melodies Band music and lyrics, and gets his inspiration from his children. Anthony lives in Biddeford. Tina Murphy is also a music educator in Maine, at Berwick Academy in South Berwick. She sings, plays keyboard and guitar for the Little Melodies Band. At a very young age, Tina started her singing career in a church folk group, and has also performed ensemble singing and vocal harmonization with several local bands. Her formal music training began in 1987 at the University of Maine in Augusta. She has also been a band member of the Dani Tribesmen, a well known local reggae band, since 1988. Tina resides in Saco, Maine with her husband Mike, and daughter Grace. Mike Murphy is the drummer/percussionist for the Little Melodies Band. Also a band member of the Dani Tribesmen, he has been playing drums since 1977. Mike graduated from the University of Maine at Augusta with a BA in Jazz and Contemporary Music. During his studies at UMA, he traveled to Boston to study with noted Berklee instructor, Alan Dawson. In addition to performing with several bands, Mike is an active percussion instructor, teaching privately at area schools. Mike lives in Saco, Maine with his wife Tina, and their daughter, Grace. Mike Nugent, Bass Guitarist for the Little Melodies Band began playing guitar as a child. He has spent many years playing in venues all over New England, sometimes as frequently as 250 nights a year. For the past 7 years Mike has dedicated his time to Biddeford City Theater, where he has been either onstage, in the orchestra or backstage for every show. Mike lives in Biddeford, Maine with his wife, Debra. Pamela Cormack is a vocalist for the Little Melodies Band. Also a University of Maine graduate, she has performed a variety of singing styles since grade school, including barbershop and contemporary folk music. She has been singing with the Portland Symphony Orchestra's Magic of Christmas Chorus since 1992, and has done works from Handel's Messiah, Mendelsson, Franz Shubert and Rodgers and Hammerstein. Pam currently volunteers in the Music Department of Park Street School in Kennebunk, Maine with Anthony Michaud. She lives in Kennebunk with her two daughters, Emma and Maria.
