ROCK: Hard Rock, POP: Power Pop Details: Feedback on A Damn Fine Record: - "IT FRICKEN ROCKS!

I love it...Awesome job." -JH - "It IS a damn fine rockin' cd!" -RJ - "Your cd made for some excellent driving music!" -JM - "You guys really do ROCK! I just read the words and I like them, then add music and vocals and DAMN!" -LL Magnetism is an innovative rock band with soul. Not funk, but funky; not metal, but metallish. Female and male singers--who can really sing--focus on harmony, delivering melodies that linger, with lyrics on the subject of romance that are at once raw and elegant. And no two songs from this band sound the same. The songs on this record tell the story of a couple who meet at a party and fall in love. You follow them from the first moment of listening to a band playing at the party, through their first connection, then some doubts after the initial passion, and finally their commitment to each other and to making their lives exciting. A rocking political song closes out the album. Please email the band and let them know what you think of any clips you play.
