Moes Haven recorded an album for each day of the month in September, 2006. These are the best songs from that experiment. 16 MP3 Songs POP: Bubblegum Pop, POP: Beatles-pop Details: Moes Haven has recorded thousands of songs in Manchester, NH. In the back of their minds, songwriters Matt Farley and Tom Scalzo always wanted to honor the city with a tribute album. And now it's here! September: In Manchvegas. For those of you who don't know, Manchester's nickname is Manchvegas--and no one is quite sure why. Different reasons for the name are explored on this album, which is part of Moes Haven's famed album-a-day project of 2006. If you live in Manchester or have ever spent any time there, you NEED to buy this album. It's essential! If you've never been to Manchester, you NEED to buy this album, listen to it, and then come visit and check out all the things that Farley sings about in the album's sixteen songs. SEPTEMBER: IN MANCHVEGAS celebrates a quirky city and its many quirky citizens. The songs are short, funny and incredibly catchy. It's a perfect tribute to a city where the most prolific band in the world has, rather quietly, created a staggering body of work that is slowly being recognized by the world.
