(Nicest Man In Hell) ... "You didn't half-way die for me, so how can I half-way live for you?" (Half-Way) ... "You're the picture the artist couldn't paint, You're the song the singer couldn't find the words to sing, You're more lovely than the fragrance of perfume. The only word the I can find for something so beautiful is you" (You). Song Lyrics from Rick James debut CD "Workin' On Commission". From the smallest of Churches to the world famous Ryman Auditorium, home of the Grand Ol' Opry in Nashville Tennessee, Rick James has been playing music to the glory of God. Rick began playing guitar as a Sophomore in high school and quickly excelled and in a matter of a few years was opening for acts like Ginny Owens, Sarah Masen, and Lisa Beville. While attending Trevecca Nazarene University in Nashville Tennessee, Rick recorded his first CD of all original music titled, Workin On Commission. Rick also released a second CD titled, "With Empty Hands" shortly after moving to Ohio in 2002 and is in the planning stages for recording another CD in 2007. Rick is also featured on the newly released childrens DVD/CD titled Little Joseph (golittleleaders.com). Rick James is an ordained minister in the Church of the Nazarene. Rick and his wife Jennifer live in Springfield Ohio where he serves at First Church of the Nazarene minister of music and youth.
