Pop jazz folk vocals. (Pop Jazz Folk Vocals). Say it aloud, it's fun. Po-ja-fo-vo. Multi-layered lilting vocals over clunky piano, accented by occasionally clever lyrics and a jazzy-pop sound with a folk injection. The Artist: S for Steph is the product of me, Steph. I am inspired by all kinds of things around me - Joni, Regina Spektor, Beatles of course, Miles, Bob Marley, Coltrane, Celtic music, African music, natural organic rhythms made by feet walking, people talking; those I love, sunshine, rain, transit of all kinds, travel, food. Mostly I layer the harmonies as much as I have time for, overtop of whichever piano I can get my hands on and an occasional hand drum of some kind or another. It's all written and performed by myself. Next album is planning to have a live drummer (wait I guess I'm a live drummer - what I meant was a real drummer, not a singer trying to be a drummer), and perhaps a guitarist, and since I've no longer access to a piano, perhaps synth keyboard. But I imagine the vocals will still be layered harmonies because I can't go on without harmony. You can never have too much of it. It is imperfect and there are mistakes and occasionally I laugh in the background, but that's what I like about it, it's organic and it's all I've got so it's all I can give; maybe you will get a sense of that when you hear it. The CD: Half of these songs were written years ago and half are new. I tried to make them clever which probably means they aren't so much clever, but at least I tried. Have a listen and if you like it, cool, and if you don't, that's also cool. Whatever suits you. Enjoy! Steph People who are interested in Joni Mitchell Regina Spektor should consider this download.
