FOLK: Gentle, POP: Folky Pop Details: Shannon McMahon has been singing since she was a little girl, when she sang into her hairbrush along with Carly Simon records. When she was nine, she got her first guitar, and started writing her own songs at the age of ten. Inspired by the music of John Denver, Gordon Lightfoot, Joan Baez, Joni Mitchell, Judy Collins and Bob Dylan, Shannon found her musical roots in contemporary folk. Some of My Years includes songs that are soul-baring testimonies to love, loss and living one day at a time.
