Details: Its rare to find a record like this these days. The Jamestown Union crashed onto the UK music scene with this their debut album. Recorded in traditional style on analogue, theyve created a sound, which balances the melodic classicism of mid 70s country rock with 21st century indie sensibilities. Perhaps they are the first real incarnation of a truly transatlantic sound. The album captures the spirit of their live work; perfected in the underground clubs and bars of the UK and the US. With all the hallmarks of a classic debut album, The Jamestown Union manage to break into new musical territory. This is not corporate rock. This is not underground nonsense. It is precisely the sort of album that got us all buying records in the first place. What is The Jamestown Union? Not a place, a loose metaphor from a less ridiculous age or a more realistic future. Be prepared for an unmanufactured experience.
