Details: Moment For Love is the debut album by Boston Celtics superstar Walter McCarty This album features an eclectic mix of retro R&B and up-tempo dance tracks inspired by the fun and laid back music of the late 80's and the early 90's R&B + NBA = 0. Confused, well don't be. At six feet ten inches tall and able to play four different positions on the basketball court. Boston Celtics star Walter McCarty is setting his sights on making string music of another kind. His debut in the big time came when he was a student at the University of Kentucky. He sang the National Anthem before a packed house of 24,000 screaming fans at the Rupp Arena. He matched that feat his rookie season in the NBA as a New York Knick. Walt's unique ability to sing, as well as his basketball skills, caught the eye of world-renowned feature film director, Spike Lee, landing him a role in the hit movie "He Got Game". Walter has also performed on the same stage with such artists as Destiny's Child, Jagged Edge, and upcoming R&B duo Black Coffey. "Music has always been my first love" Walter now plans to use the same discipline, determination and dedication it took to make it into the NBA to achieve the highest success in music. Walter accepted the challenge to record an artist album and is about to explode into the music scene with his debut project Moment For Love. With the help of veteran super producer Dave "Jam" Hall, who has produced multi-platinum hits for Mariah Carey, Madonna, Mary J. Blige and Brownstone, Moment For Love is an expression of Walters' that is not often seen running up and down the basketball court. Along with Hall up-and-coming producer Melvin Coleman, Moment For Love explores everything from lost love to letting loose and having a good time. Catchy hooks and smooth melodies makes this debut album a must have for any R&B music fan.
