Quirky, moody, basement pop/rock 5 MP3 Songs POP: Quirky, ROCK: American Underground Show all album songs: Ego Reflector EP Songs Details: The "Ego Reflector" Digital EP contains 5 songs that show Why Make Clocks on a brief detour breaking out of the pigeonhole of past genre descriptions. The EP had been planned for years, but for various reasons hadn't happened-until last year when the time was right. Intended as a way to try out new recording equipment and to do something different, Why Make Clocks recorded 3 songs added an unused older recording and a live track that was the opening song of the band's first show in 2000. to make the EP. The physical CD is a limited edition CD-R (only 200 were made) intended to help the band recoup the cost of their 2nd full-length album, "Midwestern Film". The "Ego Reflector Digital EP" was: mastered by Doug Van Sloun at Studio B in Omaha, NE recorded by Eric Kennedy at our former practice space except "Cold Front(Live Version)" which was recorded live to ADAT by Chris Thrailkill Why Make Clocks personell on the EP were: DAN HUTCHISON-vocals/guitars/chord organ/toy piano/hand claps/foot stomps WILL TARBOX-drums on tracks 1-3 ERIC KENNEDY-guitars tracks 1-3/backing vocals/hand claps/foot stomps PHILIP STERK-Moog/Wurlitzer on tracks 1 2 BOONIE-bass on track 1-3 BRIAN WIKSELL-guitar on tracks 4 (intro) 5, bass on track 4 KARL SIEMERS-guitar on track 5 LEE BISSMEYER-drums on tracks 4 5 CHRIS THRAILKILL-bass on track 5
