With the simplest of things man is most complex. 5 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Experimental, NEW AGE: Meditation Details: The sounds of BlackSaturns environment a minimal amount of instruments and occasionally household objects converted into drum kits and other inventions create rhythmic sounds, backing noises and thought driven beats shaped by his imagination. Influenced by hip-hop, dub, experimental, sounds capes, noise, and all things electronic. With the simplest of things man is most complex is Black Saturns philosophy behind his production. As an artist Saturn views himself as an eternal being in a short term situation in ongoing evolution. The present, the future, and eternity are the only dimensions in space and time that matter. In the present we create and in the future others hear us and in eternity our creation is how people will remember us. His homemade 5 track cdr release was inspired by a 3 minute field recording of birds in the morning outside his Virginia home that was featured on show 13 of lividlookingglass.coms pod cast. That recording became the name of his cdr
