Real life sibling duo combine folky, indie pop with electronic beats and sounds to create songs like stories. 11 MP3 Songs in this album (37:32) ! Related styles: ELECTRONIC: Experimental, POP: Folkly Pop Details: Heralding from Adelaide in Australia, this sibling duo are just at home living in a suitcase, having lived and worked and recorded all around the country and the world. Coming from a musical family; of Estonian, French and English heritage, Dante and Xavia Nou started playing and recording as children. Only in 2005 did the BrotherSister project officially begin. Making a studio of any room with some peace and quiet, the two compile songs by sending files to each other across oceans and cities, layering melodic acoustic instruments over electronic beats and sounds creating an evocative mix of whimsical and sometimes bleak tale-like songs. Having been received warmly for shows in the USA and AUS, the siblings have released their anticipated second album- The Wunder Tales in February 2008 to a receptive home crowd. (wunder meaning a place where a collection of rarities and curiosities are exhibited). Following in the self produced footsteps of their debut self titled EP, The Wunder Tales has remained an international effort with mastering completed in Nashville by Marc Chevalier and artwork in NYC by Emmy award winning design firm- SHILO (shilo.tv) who are currently working on the bands second music video, Still Run, set for release May 2009.
