Details: Bryan Silver is a pianist and composer from Akron, Ohio who creates rhythmic, introspective, new age solo piano music. His first solo piano album, Feel released February 2009, is a collection of piano pieces that range from his first composition, The Decision, composed six years ago as a sophomore in high school, to his latest piece, Rain completed just eight months ago as a senior in college. This album demonstrates Bryans discovery and development of his compositional style over the past several years. Bryan hopes that his music serves as an everyday escape, providing positive energy and a rejuvenated feeling.
