At an early age people could see that Char had something special. Winning every dance competition and beauty contest that she went entered in, her versatility was seen far beyond her years. Then one day Char and all her friends had the opportunity to sing at her family reunion. Everyone was amazed when she began to sing because she was known as Char the dancer. Although her mother would often hear her sing around the house, she didnt think much of it until she saw her dance and sing in a talent show at her school. After that her dad decided to take her into the studio and record a c.d. Teaming up with producer Simuel they began to come up with song after song and before long they had completed the first eight songs. On her album Char sings like an angel, and some of her songs she raps as good as anyone in the industry. She also has a tribute song called Little Mexico which reflects her nationality. With God, her beautiful looks, and personality, Char Star is headed straight to the top.
