

Mp3 Forte' - Lady Forte'

DOWNLOAD HERE

Forte' style is phenomenal. She enhances the listener and totally brings back the beauty of music. If you are seeking quality, this CD is a must have. 15 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Jazz Vocals, JAZZ: Swing/Big Band Details: The Industry has been longing for a project of this nature! It has been a long time coming. Lady Forte' brings you the true QUALITY of music. Her vocals manipulate and tailor the notes to her own style. Just like a nightingale would do. Dennis Sullivan of "Exodus Records" reviews this CD "Lady Forte" divides the waters as her vocals execute each note, allowing the melodies to permeate your soul and bring pure ecstasy to the ear. Lady Forte' voice is that of an Immortal. You cannot help but recollect the days of old when music was at it's best. The Prez, The Duke, Coltrane and many more were in the zone, driving Jazz to it's fullest potential. This CD is by all means a must have for the soul and also to pay tribute to yesterday's greats, Billie Holiday, Ella Fitzgerald and Sarah Vaughan. This project is simply beautiful. Dennis Murphy reviews "One BEAUTIFUL CD" "Lady Forte' Jon, I love It Might As Well Be Spring" review by Armine Martikyan. "I ask Lady Forte' to come out of the sound booth after she recorded the first song on this project-track, I could not believe the quality and efficiency of her work. It was a complete pleasure engineering this project". By Fortune Forte' your show was off the hook and well put together. Wow, you have a wonderful voice. Especially on "God Bless The Child" That was awesome. And, you looked fabulous as usual. Keep it up! You are truly an inspiration. Beauty, brains and power. By Nina Rodgers The re-make of Anita Baker's Fairy Tales is more contemporary and today Jazz. Lady Forte' puts her heart and soul into this song. This is the first music video released from the CD. Lady Forte' finds a way to take you back to the days of King Arthur in the video, but with a bit of a twist. A bit of romance and betrayal are portrayed in the video. (see clips and purchase at website) BIO Forte' her name says it all. Born with Aptitude Talent. Vocalist, Keyboardist, Producer, Writer. A first Soprano with a clear four octave range, Forte' is proficient in all styles of music including Jazz and Gospel. The dynamic stage presence and sheer vocal power never fails to stimulate and reward Forte's audience! Forte' is known for her ability to connect with people sometimes bringing them to their feet or bringing tears to their eyes. Her technique and range as a singer stand on their own. Forte' is known Internationally with her hit songs in the Netherlands and Japan is a second home where enthusiastic fans are always ready for showtime. So whether in a Concert Hall, Theatre, or Church its showtime when Forte' renders her gift. Simply put, spreading her personalized message of joy and inspiration through song to the world, is most rewarding. Lets Go! Section E of the Indianapolis Star News; Forte' performs as a popular 1940's Radio Singer in "Ain't Misbehavin" "Cinderella Brown" a stage play reflecting Forte's acting and singing. Nina Rodgers reviews from Kaleidascope Radio Magazine "Forte's CD entitled Here I Am, was aired reaching 500,000 listeners, I was very impressed and enjoyed featuring Forte's CD on the Groove Show and we look forward to hearing more great refreshing music from her." "Voice is her Forte' and Forte' is her name! Quoted from the Los Angeles Downtown News, The songs of Billie Holiday will filter across Grand Avenue-Los Angeles this evening at the Museum of Contemporary Art's Summer Nights jazz series. Forte' an Indianapolis native who boasts a four octave range, will perform a tribute to Holiday. One, Two, Three...Forte' and let the show begin.

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals: