Details: Heaven, the 2nd of 3 daughters, was born in Texas, reared in Denver, Colorado. When Heaven was 9 months of age, she could walk and dance. She never crawled; it took up to much time for someone who had places to go. To her family, she has always been an entertainer. Her mother believed she would be a stand-up comedian or an actress. Her appreciation for the Arts began to develop when she would write short stories at the tender age of 7. Her writing escalated to poetry and finally song lyrics. She has a deep perception of emotions resonating throughout the world today and she conveys these emotions by means of her melodic voice and compellingly realistic song lyrics.
