BIOGRAPHY OF ICELEE JONES.....A STAR Is Born!!!! Sacramento Native Icelee Takes the River City by Storm Icelee Jones was born into a God gifted musically talented family. The eldest of four Icelee has always been a leader of creating her own identity. As a young child Icelee love to sing and dance, often performing live without notice at numerous family gatherings, church events, and talent shows. It is at the age of seven while a faithful choir member of Progressive Church of God In Christ, the power of Icelees musical gift was acclaimed. Hypnotizing her audience into a trance, there was no denying it she was ready! Her career being fostered by her father/Manager Richard Jones, Icelee signed with Shakeum Entertainment, Inc. While working with her uncle and producer Elijah Jones president of Boogdown Productions, Icelee was given the freedom to expose her broad range of skills which resulted in Icelee debut album Outrageous; due to be released April 2006. Icelee aware of the lures of performing early on is committed to her education and remains an above average student despite commercial success. Persevering in promoting positive teen awareness. Icelee one of Sacramentos very first R&B artist, has establish the balance of talent and grace while maintaining innocence and sweetness that is attracting listeners all across the spectrum to her music.
