A piano driven party power blues band with some great playing, kickin horn arrangements, and some funny and some bawdy lyrics. 11 MP3 Songs BLUES: Rhythm Blues, BLUES: Piano Blues Details: Festive is the best word to describe an evening of Louisiana music and entertainment with the "Rockin' Louisiana Man", Jeff Spence. He is a captivating performer who combines world-class piano skills, soulful vocals and fun into one big party. His "Louisiana Music Show" features many musical styles as Dixieland where Jeff has marched the crowd around the room with his trombone to "Saints". Zydeco and cajun music are popular when Jeff plays the squeezebox and audience members play the washboard. But the strong point of this show is the bringing of New Orleans jazz and blues into one special event. Jeff Spence, whether playing solo or with his Bourbon Street Band, has played festivals and venues all over the world. He has opened for such acts as Spiro Gyra and The Neville Brothers and has played keyboards for such stars as Augie Meyers (Texas Tornados), Jimmy Witherspoon and Brook Benton. His "Rockin' Louisiana Man" was released on BMG in Europe featuring fun blues music.
