For those who enjoy Mannheim Steamroller on a hallucinogenic trip, KevOz's Christmas Spirit may be the perfect ride. Cool!" -- Carol Swanson for ChristmasReviews.com Return To Lakefront (2006) KevOz's 5th release, and sequel to 1998's Lakefront. "Breezy tunes with infectious beats and lots of sunny day attitude. The wonderful closing number, 'Sunset', may be the best thing Osborn has recorded up to this date. Its a slowly building dynamic exuberant song with an undeniable joyfulness running through it, as a piano refrain is joined by one synth after another, as well as some nicely muted tom-toms. Its an excellent closing cut." -- Bill Binkelman for New Age Reporter A Sampler (2003) A variety of previously unreleased tracks. "The music of KevOz takes in a number of different Electronic styles, from Dance to New Age to Ambient to Melodic but always with a smoothness that KevOz brings to every track." -- Carl Jenkinson for Sequences Magazine Into Orbit (2001) New Age meets Dance in cinematic fashion. "Ranging from pulse-quickening to beautifully sublime, the ten tracks of music found on Into Orbit are some of the most attractive compositions I've heard. I personally could not get enough of 'Eyes On You', which for some reason dug up a memory of a song I hadn't heard in years, yet I still can't recall what that song was. In any case, 'Eyes On You' found its way onto repeat in my CD player." -- JimmyD for The Instrumental Weekly Canvas (1999) Crafty instrumental pop with a New Age bent. "His original compositions paint lively tapestries of shadows, sunrises, happiness, dreams and much more. This CD is a definite must for your New Age music collection." -- Christina Lord for Creations Magazine Lakefront (1998) The KevOz bestseller; an hour of music perfect for yoga or meditation. "Featuring 11 melodic tracks, based largely around some excellent piano work such as the beautiful title track the cascading notes on 'Sailing Hearts'. This sets the basis for some rather beautiful music that benefits from excellent interplay of various sounds that make for some majestic musical tapestries." -- Carl Jenkinson for Sequences Magazine A note from the artist: I've been creating Ambient, Instrumental, New Age music for over 20 years now. The instrumental songs I create are 100 original, and range from ambient, dreamlike soundscapes to inspirational melodic tracks. Think Vangelis with a bit of Mannheim Steamroller, Enigma, and Tangerine Dream thrown in. If you're feeling a bit down and stressed out, my music can pick you up...if you're already feeling pretty good and just want to chill out and relax, my music can help in that department as well. I love creating music that elevates the listener to another level - whether it is used for massage, meditation, relaxation, yoga or other exercise, or just as unobtrusive background music. Feel free to visit my website: KevOz.com I recently updated it, with direct links to iTunes, new music streams, and more. Thanks for checking out my music, and enjoy! -- KevOz, Holiday Season 2006
